

Porto, ACIM and the Liver Transplantation Unit of Centro Hospitalar do Porto welcomes you to the 4th Porto Liver Meeting.

After the successful previous editions of “Porto Liver Meeting”, this time we have decided to dedicate the event to the pathway of the patient from the moment in which the decision of liver transplantation is made to the surgical procedure itself. This is a pertinent subject to all the clinicians that follow such a kind of patients, irrespective of the speciality.

Once again we have invited national and international speakers that, together, we are sure will bring the latest news and the current standard of care and management of this particular and difficult-to-treat “subset” of patients.

Be very welcome and see you once again in 2018!
